PURPOSE OF COMMITTEE: To promote the ideals of life, liberty, justice, and honor and to advance the principle that, "All decisions, at all levels of government, must be motivated by justice and honor and seek to promote the original intent of the United States of America's Declaration of Independence and Constitution. To additionally advance the supporting ideal that the long-term, best interests of "The People" outweigh the desires of special interest groups or the politics of any political Party." Additionally, and to those ends; "To expose any deviation from the above stated goals by any candidate, for any office, in any political Party who puts politics before the greater good of "The People."
